Activity 1:

Think about the story and Funni's special place. Do you have a special place? How do you look after it? Why is it special to you?

Draw a picture of your special place and label.

Can you write why it is special to you?

My special place is _____. It is special to me because _____

Activity 2:

Zoo and Funni have a special friendship throughout the story. Can you think of things that are similar or different about the two characters? (worksheet below)

Why were Zoo and Funni such good friends? What were they able to give each other through their friendship?

Have you got a friend, at home, at school or somewhere else, who is really special to you? You might talk about a friend your own age or someone who is younger or older, or even a special pet or toy. What makes your friendship special?
