

Activity 2:

Read the senses poem below can you list the five senses?

Five Little Senses All in a Row

*You're so sweet! Said Lickety lips,
Keep in touch! Said Fingertips
See you soon! Said Eye with a wink
Said the nose, Don't cause a stink!
Hear me out! said the ears immense
Together, we make a lot of SENSE!

Andrew Fusek Peters

Go on a senses walk using your senses, make a list of things you hear, see, feel, smell, taste e.g. pretty flowers, birds tweeting, trees swaying, busy roads, delicious ice cream etc...

Can you use these to make a list poem or create your own poem.

Extra activities

Rhyming activities (see separate sheet)

Visit websites below to listen to more poems-

<https://childrens.poetryarchive.org/poet/michael-rosen/>

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC7D-mXO4kk-XWvH6lBXdrPw>

https://clpe.org.uk/poetryline/s?f%5B0%5D=bundle_name%253APoem&f%5B1%5D=bundle%3Aclpe_poem&f%5B2%5D=im_field_year_group_ref%3A34