WEEK 11 RE

Islam

In our last RE session we looked at how babies were welcomed into the Muslim community. Today we are going to have a look at Muslim life as children grow up.

Watch this following clip about a young girl called Sara. Have a think about and discuss things are similar and different in your life and Sara's life.

Now we are going to look at a young Muslim boy called Kaisan and what he does when he prays and visits the Mosque. Think back to the times that we have visited the Christian church and talked with Reverend Andy about the importance of prayer in the Christian community. Watch the clips and discuss similarities and differences as well as any key points that you have found interesting.
