

Useful Links for Spanish Home Learning

Duolingo - <https://www.duolingo.com/learn>

- Can be done online or downloaded as an app. Requires you to create an account and then follows very simple and intuitive lessons building up from the basics.

Memrise - <https://www.memrise.com/>

- Another free app which can be completed online or downloaded to a device. Simple to follow and easy to interact with.

Mi Madrid – BBC Radio -

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/articles/4FDrPw6jzlxpYKq0WsbS8J3/mfl-ks2-spanish-mi-madrid>

- 40 episodes to listen and interact with based around two friends who are exploring the city of Madrid. This link takes you to the resources for each episode including translations to help you
bbc.co.uk/programmes/articles/2BMpQY5ZpmQtmQHnTDTLhfc/mi-madrid-resources

BBC Bitesize - <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/subjects/zxsvr82>

- Lots of videos and audio clips to listen to which practice common vocabulary and useful phrases.

Twinkl - <https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resources/planit-primary-teaching-resources/spanish-planit/year-3-spanish-planit>

- Twinkl is currently free to subscribe to and allows access to thousands of teaching resources. This link takes you to their Spanish 'planning'. Although it says Year 3, these resources can be used by anyone.

Other ideas:

Listen to and read some stories you know well in English in Spanish.

<https://www.thespanishexperiment.com/stories>

- This website has lots of fairytales translated into Spanish and read by a native Spanish speaker. You can read along or just listen and enjoy!

Change the subtitles (or audio) to Spanish when you are watching a DVD you know really well. You can also do this on apps like Netflix and Amazon Prime.